

Best Practice Recommendations

Return of results for clinical trial participants

- Build a knowledge translation strategy into your research plan!
- Plan and manage expectations of what information participants will be provided from commencement of the study
- Support and enable study staff with tools for communicating with participants
- Ensure study outcomes are accessible and provide options whenever possible
- When the study ends, say thank you

Scan for full guidance

